BROADCASTING REGULATIONS, 2000

2001/15.

Authority: These Regulations were made on 19th December, 2000 by the Authority under section 11 of the Broadcasting Act.

Commencement: 5th February, 2001.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Broadcasting Regulations, 2000. Citation.

2. For the purposes of these Regulations,

Interpretation.

"Authority" means the Barbados Broadcasting Authority established under section 3(1) of the Broadcasting Act;

Cap. 274B.

"Government-reserved time" means the time reserved for the purpose of broadcasting programmes specially provided by Government in pursuance of regulation 12;

"licensee" means the holder of a licence issued under the Act;

"programme" means any matter broadcast by a radio station but does not include information relating only to the identification of the radio station or any advertisement.

3. (1) The licensee shall cause the radio station operated by it to be identified, at intervals of one half-hour or such other intervals as may be prescribed, during the entire period that the station is in operation. Station identification.

(2) All station identification under these Regulations shall be made by reference to local time.

(3) The frequencies on which the station is licensed to operate shall be stated at least 3 times per day.

reg.4

Log. 4. (1) The licensee shall cause to be kept a log, in which it shall record

- (a) the day and time at which each station identification is made;
- (b) the title of each programme;
- (c) the time at which each broadcast commenced and ended;
- (d) the duration of each advertisement or other announcement, and the time at which it is given;
- (e) the name of the sponsor of any announcement or programme;
- (f) in relation to any talk or speech broadcast by the licensee,
 - (i) the name of the speaker;
 - (ii) the auspices of any organisation under which the talk or speech was given; and
 - (iii) where the speech was made on behalf of any political party or with a view to promoting the election to any public office of any person, the name of such political party or the political affiliations of such person, as the case may be;
- (g) where practicable, the time and the duration of any interruption of any programme, and the reason for such interruption; and
- (h) whether electromagnetic reproduction was used in the course of any broadcast.

(2) Symbols or abbreviations may be used for the purpose of making any record of the nature referred to in paragraph (1) of this regulation if the meaning of such symbols or abbreviations is clearly set out in the log containing such record.

(3) The log and records referred to in paragraph (1) shall be kept for not less than one year.

(4) In addition to the records required to be kept under paragraph (1) of this regulation, the licensee shall wherever practicable also keep for at least one year

- (a) a copy of the continuity used between each programme; and
- (b) a copy of any commercial matter broadcast by the licensee.

(5) All records required to be kept under this regulation shall be available at the licensee's premises for inspection at all reasonable times by the Authority or by any person authorised in writing by the Authority.

5. The licensee shall not permit to be broadcast from a radio station or television station operated by the licensee
